FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

"Here is a golden Rule to begin with. WRITE LEGIBLY. The average temper of the human race would be perceptibly sweetened, if everybody obeyed this Rule."

Mrs. Lowenkopf presents a challenge to each student. As she seeks the best in each of us, she also sets an example by the high standards she demands of herself. Beyond this, we appreciate the sensitivity she shows toward all of us as individuals. Her subtle sense of humor creates a unique atmosphere both in and out of class. For all her contributions, we thank Mrs. Lowenkopf and dedicate this yearbook to her.

Never put a kindness off
Never wait to say
The word of praise
Or sympathy
Which someone Needs today.

Lest suddenly it Proves too late
To anything but rue
The helpful,
Thoughtful things
You never got Around to doing.

Look to this day!
For it is life, the very life of life
In its brief course lie all the verities and realities of your existence:
The bliss of growth;
The glory of action;
The splendor of beauty For yesterday is already a dream, and tomorrow is only a vision;
But today, well lived, makes every yesterday
A dream of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope.
Look well, therefore, to this day!

From the Sanskrit

The Sign of an immature man is a man who wants to die nobly for a cause; while a mature man wants to live humbly for one.

You do your thing,
And I do my thing
You are not in this world to live up to my expectations
And I'm not in this world to live up to your expectations
You are you
And I am I
And if by chance we meet It's beautiful.

— Fredrick S. Pearls

If people bring so much courage to this world the world has to kill them to break them, so of course it kills them. The world breaks everyone and afterward many are strong at the broken places. But those that will not break it kills. It kills the very good and the very gentle and the very brave impartially. If you are none of these you can be sure it will kill you, too, but there will be no special hurry.

Dear Jon,

Another year over and done with. It wasn't too bad - and it wasn't too good. I'm hoping next year will be a lot better. My Russian will always help me along (people keep taking my pens) I hope your course at F+M will be a success - we certainly need something to improve our schedules - mine at least! But I'm not going to complain anymore about Country Day - it isn't worth it. Have a good summer - I hope I'll see you during it! (My English writing stinks) And I hope by the time we graduate from this dump we'll be good friends!

Love,

Toni

Dear Jon,
I've got to admit
this has been some year.
If it wasn't for 1st period
Study Hall, I don't know where I'd be. Driving's a blast, isn't it! Come and see me this summer, when you get the olé Mercedes. Have a great vacation and I hope you get to Canada. (at least there can practice your French!)
Love,
Adriane

for.
I love your new haircut! Now you're not only beautiful, you're gorgeous! Have fun on your bike trip and don't do anything I wouldn't do! See ya over the summer - maybe playing 3-ball at Scott's. Until then, see ya gorgeous!
Love always,
Margie
